Re: Hernandez Vs Rosso Uptown Case 2:20-cv-04026-JMA-SIL

Dear Honorable Judge Natasha C. Merle,

I hope you are doing well, I was informed by Mr. Gammella (defendant pro se) that you are now presiding the above mentioned case and are substituting the Honorable Judge Joan M. Azrack. Due to our impossibility to establish communication with our attorney, Mr. Gammella and I are proceeding pro se as noted in our last pretrial conference by Judge Steven I. Locke. I am providing you with copies of my last filing, also exchanged with Mr. Moser at our last pretrial conference.

Respectfully,

Michael Tizzano

Re: Hernandez vs Rosso Uptown
Case 2:20-cv-04026-JMA-SIL

PRETRIAL

Motion to dismiss pre trial

Dear Judge Azrack,

I hope this letter of mine finds you well. It has been impossible for me to establish any contact with the attorney that is representing Mr. Gammella and that was extending his help to me. I tried to reach him and asked if he could present any letter to the court stating he would withdraw from the case allowing me to proceed pro-se, all my attempts have been unsuccessful.

I am writing to bring to your attention certain key aspects of the ongoing case, specifically the plaintiffs' attorney claims against me as an officer and owner of the corporation in question. I have legal proof that I was never an employee or an officer of "Rosso Uptown LTD"

I have diligently cooperated with the plaintiffs' attorney through the discovery and deposition process, I have provided Mr. Moser extensive documentation, including Schedule k-1 (form 1120s) Exhibit A, and form 2553 Exhibit B, which unequivocally demonstrate that I hold zero ownership in the corporation being sued, these documents are not only legally valid but also refute the plaintiffs' baseless assertions.

Furthermore, I would like to highlight that upon information shared with me by Mr. Gammella, the corporation's annual sales fall below the $500,000 thresholds, rendering it exempt under the fair Labor standard Act (FLSA). This exemption further underscores the lack of merit in the plaintiffs' claims against me as I don't qualify as an employer.

According to the U.S. Department of Labor, the act applies to businesses with $ 500,000 in annual dollar volume of business or more. A company with less than half a million dollars in annual business is generally not covered"

It is essential to note that the evidence presented to me at deposition by the plaintiffs' lawyer in the form of Facebook posts or Newspaper's ads, is largely hearsay and lacks the necessary legal foundation. Despite my efforts to provide Mr. Moser with irrefutable proof of my non-involvement in the ownership of the corporation, the plaintiffs' case remains unsupported by credible evidence.

Furthermore, I am attaching supporting documentation (Exhibit C) that illustrate the extent of my financial distress. Due to unforeseen circumstances, I am currently facing significant economic hardship that if the court will impose me to fulfill any monetary compensation, my obligations to the State and IRS (and Income Execution Exhibit D) it will make it nearly impossible for the plaintiffs to collect.

In light of the aforementioned circumstances, I kindly request the court's dismissal in the interest of justice of this case against me. The plaintiffs' failure to present competent legal evidence and clear documentation proving my non-ownership should be sufficient grounds for dismissal.

In the eventuality of a trial, this is my list of witnesses and subpoenas I intent to exercise:

Joe De Guida,
Chase Bank

I appreciate your attention to the matter and trust that the court will evaluate the evidence objectively. Thank you for your time and consideration.

Respectfully,

Michael Tizzano
